DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

2. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claim 1 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,732,867. This is a double patenting rejection.

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-5 and 7 rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-6 of U.S. Patent No. 6,732,867. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the reference has all the limitations of the current application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fu (US 4584097)-cited by applicant. Fu ('097) discloses the use of a hydrocarboxycarbonyl thionocarbamate in which the hydrocarbyl group attached to the oxycarbonyl can be, among other things, a c1-c6 alkyl and the hydrocarbyl group attached to the oxythiono group can be, among other things, a c1-c6 alkyl. Applicant's claim 1 recites N- butoxycarbonyl-o-butylthionocarbamate with the note that the specification asserts that the term includes isomers thereof (pg. 2, line 10). Thus the terms buto- and butyl- are interpreted as a nonspecific c4. Since c1-c6 includes c4, the claims are anticipated.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fu et al (US 4584097). As noted above Fu discloses the use of c4 attached to the oxycarbonyl and the oxythiono groups of the recited chemical compound. The isomeric versions recited in claim 6 are specific isomeric versions of the compound taught by Fu to have utility in flotation. The use of such isomers is obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art absent a showing that the isomers have unexpected utility in the practice of the invention. The instant specification compares the recited isomers to preferred embodiments of the Fu invention. However, the closest aspect of the Fu invention to the claimed subject matter would involve the comparison of the recited isomers to the other c4 isomers not recited in claim 6. For example n-butyl, or t-butyl etc.

Information Disclosure Statement

9. Applicant is reminded of the duty to disclose. There are 2 related cases filed by the Applicant which were not disclosed.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
